EASTERN ORTHODOX COMMITTEE ON SCOUTING

SCOUT SUNDAY 2012

Today, Scouts all over the United States will celebrate National Scout Sunday. This Sunday is set aside to honor God and to remind us that we are all His Creatures and made in His Image.

As Orthodox Christians, we should honor our Boy or Girl Scouts and what they represent. The Scouting organization consists of young people ages 5 to 18 and the adults who lead them.

This year, the Girl Scouts celebrate their 100th anniversary as the Boy Scouts celebrate their 102nd year. Both of these programs consider reverence and belief in God to be cornerstones for developing young women and men as leaders of their communities and their country.

In honor of this day, we want to recognize our own boys, girls, and Scout Masters who participate in Scouting.

Alexa DeMoss, Brownie.
Genevieve Speros, Girl Scout (7th year).
Vasiliki Paris, Girl Scout
Matthew Frank Walsh, Life Scout/Venture Crew (working toward Eagle).
Demetrios Elias Pickett, Cub Scout.
Dominic Tropea, Boy Scout (12 years old).
Nathaniel Tropea, Webelo (10 years old), becoming Boy Scout in March.
Costa Theodore, Life Scout.
John Theodore, Webelos II (becomes Boy Scout/Wednesday).
Dean Papadopoulos, Webelos 1 (Pack 416).
Reid Bard, Life Scout (Troop 644).
Shannon Bard, Scout Master (Troop 644).

Kontakion of the Presentation of Our Lord, First Tone

You Who Sanctified the Virgin Womb in Your Birth and Blessed the hands of Simeon, as was proper, coming in time, also now, You saved us, Christ the God. Wherefore, pacify in wars Your commonwealth, and give might to the rulers whom You have loved, as the only Lover of mankind.

Holy Communion is offered to all Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves properly.

SUNDAY OF THE PUBLICAN AND PHARISSE TRIODION BEGINS TODAY.

First Eothinon (Morning Gospel) at Orthros (Matins)
Matthew 28: 16-20.

First Tone

The Reading is from Saint Paul's Second Letter to Timothy 3: 10-15.

TIMOTHY, my son, you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, my sufferings, what befell me at Antioch, at Iconion, and at Lystra, what persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. Indeed all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil men and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceivers and deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings which are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.†

The Reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke 18: 10-14

THE LORD SAID THIS PARABLE, "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."†

Resurrectional Apolytikion (Dismissal Hymn) First Tone

The stone that had been sealed before Your tomb by the Jews, and the soldiers guarding did watch o'er Your pure and Sacred Body. O Savior, the Third Day You arose, and unto all the world did You give life. Whereby all the heavenly powers did proclaim that You are the Giver of life: “Glory unto our resurrected Christ; glory unto Your Kingdom; glory to Your dispensation, O You Who loves mankind.”

(Dismissal Hymn) Apolytikion for the Presentation of Our Lord in the Temple,
First Tone

Hail, Most Graceful One, Mother of God and Virgin; for from you dawned the Sun of righteousness, Christ our God, illuminating those in the darkness. Rejoice you also, righteous elder, having received in your arms
the liberator of our souls, Who grants to us also the resurrection.
